

Name: California Condor

Wingspan: 9.5 ft

Weight: 16-23 pounds

Lifespan: unknown, possibly 60 years

Population: Down to 22 in 1982. Over 350 alive today. This highly endangered bird is raised at The Peregrine Fund in Boise, Idaho, and is released at the Vermillion Cliffs near the Grand Canyon. There are also breeding programs in California and Oregon.

Condor Maze

Use a pencil to draw a line without a break through the maze without crossing any lines.

Start Here →

Finish Here →

